Get Those Air Fryers Out!

Potato croquettes are crispy on the outside and soft and tender inside

Column and photos by Ali Carter, Wisconsin Potato Growers Auxiliary

This is a wonderful way to use up leftover mashed potatoes, and it is a recipe that is sure to please everyone!

Air fryer croquettes are crispy on the outside while their interiors remain soft and tender. Served with sour cream, they make the perfect snack or bite-size appetizer.

DIRECTIONS

Add the green onions and ranch seasoning to the potatoes and mash together. If the mixture seems too dry, add a tablespoon of milk or so. Set aside.

Place the flour in a shallow bowl, season with salt and pepper.

Whisk the egg and water in another shallow bowl.

Place the breadcrumbs in a third shallow bowl.

Form the potato mixture into balls, approximately 1-inch across (I ended up with 20). Roll the balls in the flour,

INGREDIENTS:

Air Fryer Potato Croquettes

- 3 cups leftover mashed potatoes or one 24-ounce container refrigerated mashed potatoes
- 1/4 cup finely chopped green onion
- 1 1/2 tsp. dry ranch dressing mix (from a 1-ounce package)
- 1 cup flour
- salt and pepper
- 2 eggs
- 2 Tbsp. water
- 1 1/2 cups extra fine breadcrumbs
- Cooking spray

then dip them in the egg wash, and then in the breadcrumb mixture.

Place the croquettes in your air fryer, leaving a little space between each croquette so they aren't touching each other (you may have to do this in batches).

Spray the tops of the croquettes lightly with oil.

Air fry at 350 degrees for 15 minutes, or until golden and crispy.

Serve immediately with sour cream for dipping.

Enjoy! BCT
